

CENT-A-WORD ADS.

POST—Bag containing four one-cent bills. Please return to Hiram...

FOR SALE—Cheap Upright piano good condition. Mrs. Harry Fine...

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE

Take Notice: I, the undersigned, collector of the Village of Fair Haven, N. Y., have received the tax...

W. S. BROWN, Village Clerk.

FOR SALE OR RENT—William McIntyre house on Cottage street, near C. H. Griggs.

WATCH REPAIRING—First-class work. Reasonable prices. Leave watches at O'Brien's store. Fred Lervieux, North Fair Haven.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

By virtue of an Order granted by the Surrogate of Cayuga County, NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all persons having claims against the estate of Fred Dominicy, late of Fair Haven, Cayuga County, N. Y., deceased, are required to present the same with vouchers in support thereof...

Dated January 20, 1933.

NELLIE MABEL JACKSON, Executor.

Herbert A. Robinson, Attorney for executor, Office & P. O. Address, Weedsport, New York.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS TO PRODUCE CLAIMS

PURSUANT to an order of Hon. Walter E. Woodin, Surrogate of Cayuga County, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against Emily J. Cooper, late of Sterling, in the county of Cayuga, deceased, that they are required to present the same with the vouchers thereof, to Preston J. Clark, one of the administrators of the said deceased, at the residence of said Preston J. Clark in the Town of Sterling, N. Y., on or before the 10th day of December, A. D., 1933.

Dated May 23rd, 1933.

JAMES H. COOPER, PRESTON J. CLARK as Administrators of the Estate of Emily J. Cooper, deceased.

John W. Brandt, Attorney for Administrators, Wolcott, N. Y.

CASH PAID

For Old Gold Jewelry, Watches, Gold Tooth Crowns. Gather it now and bring or mail to ROBERT D. LOUIS, Jeweler Auburn, N. Y.

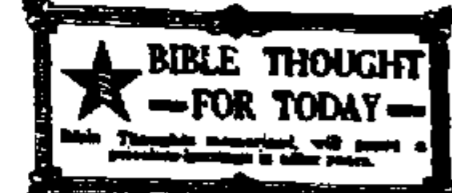

The Healthmobile of the New York State Department of Health spent last week in Cayuga county, showing attractive health films to the children in various schools where arrangements could be made that would not interfere with examinations. In the rural sections the pictures were shown in the schools. Through the courtesy of the manager, a showing was given in the Jefferson Theatre in Auburn, for the benefit of the school children of the city. Arrangements for this tour were made by Miss Theresa Wallace, county public health nurse, and Miss Ida M. Finch, executive secretary of the Cayuga County Committee on Tuberculosis and Public Health. Miss Marie Swanson, supervisor of school nurses of the New York State Department of Education, spent Wednesday and Thursday last week with the district school superintendents and the rural school nurses, going over their school training problems.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The chapel program Friday morning was given by the Sophomore class with Geraldine Smith in charge. The program was as follows: Hymn, "O My Soul"; play, "Mrs. Potts"; song, "Long, Long Ago"; play, "Making Ruben Propose"; song, "I'll Be True"; song, "Fight, Fight"; school song, "On Fair Haven"; characters in the play were as follows: Mrs. Perkins, Dorothy Dieckmann; Erwin Fineout; Miss Swanson, underlaw of Mrs. Perkins; Geraldine Smith.

Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Anna Russell, Local Editor, Call Phone 18-7-4

JUNE 15.—HOW TO WIN: Trust in the Lord and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Commit thy way unto the Lord; just also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.—Psalms 37:3, 5.

Dr. J. Paul Chapin of Syracuse called on friends in town Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Tighe and family of Red Creek spent Saturday evening in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Phelps of Auburn are passing some time at their cottage at Pearson's Point.

Miss Marian Seely, school nurse, has been engaged to care for Fair Haven High School the coming year.

Miss Floris Wilkinson of Syracuse spent the week end at the home of her father, George Wilkinson and family.

Burt Howland is passing the summer at his cottage near North Fair Haven, and drives to his farm south of this place each day.

Misses Minerva Sant and Elizabeth Messent and friend of Auburn were Sunday guests of Miss Sant's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sant.

Miss Ardella Jackson and father, Harry Jackson, and George Newkirk of Auburn spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson.

A new electric light pole has been set in front of the Mendel block to replace the one damaged by Willis Demarest with his automobile a short time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Van Patten of Minetto were week end guests of Mr. Van Patten's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert Van Patten of North Fair Haven.

Fire of unknown origin was discovered in a large tree on Lake street Friday by Mrs. Herbert Baggs, who reported it to Street Commissioner Oscar Moore.

Howard Cole and son Kenneth of Lyssander and Leon Timerson of Red Creek were in town Saturday evening to play the concert with the Citizens' band.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Easter Curtis and family and Mrs. Gertrude Curtis of Sterling attended the band concert here Saturday evening.

Miss June Terpening and Norris Thompson of Cato, Miss Floris Wilkinson and Robert Monaghan enjoyed a steak roast at the state park Saturday evening.

Robert O. Monaghan entertained the Cato Glee club of 35 members at a hot dog roast at the state park Friday afternoon. Swimming was enjoyed and a fine time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill and daughter of Oswego were in town Saturday evening and called on his mother, Mrs. Lucy R. Hill. Mr. Hill plays with the Citizens' band in their concerts.

Sunday there were 920 tickets sold at the gate, 18 motor tickets used, 200 cars parked in the free parking place, and 12 campers, three of them in cabins, at the Fair Haven Beach State Park.

Miss Elizabeth Eldredge and a party of young people of Auburn, attended the services at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and spent the day at the Eldredge summer home on Eldredge Point.

Charles Ceppi and brother Arthur of Syracuse were in town Saturday evening. Arthur left Monday for Cleveland, O., where he has been sent on U. S. Government work. Their mother, Mrs. Ida Corey, is about the same as when at Fair Haven.

The New York State Fair this year will open on Saturday, September 2, and will continue through the following week. Pupils of the schools of the state will be guests of the fair management on the opening day. A supply of tickets has been received by Prin. C. L. Linton from a publisher among the students.

Dr. W. E. Hartman is driving a new car.

Robert O. Monaghan was in Syracuse on business Saturday.

Mrs. Cora Mixer is slowly improving from her illness of rheumatism.

George E. Rich of Syracuse was in town on business Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blauvelt of Auburn spent the week end at their summer home here.

Mrs. Jane Millard and daughter, Virginia of North Syracuse spent the week end at their home here.

Louis Longley of Fulton spent Saturday night at the home of his brother, Ernest Longley and family, near Sterling.

Friends of Prin. B. J. Partridge are pleased to see him able to be out on the street again and driving his own car.

Mrs. Fred Hopkins and daughter, Leda and friend of Crockett's spent Saturday evening in town to enjoy the band concert.

The school picnic of District No. 11 will be held at Fair Haven, west side, Friday, June 16. Covered dish dinner will be served at noon.

John Pringle of North Victory has been doing carpenter work for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hadcock Sr. on their cottage at the head of the bay.

Fair Haven and Meridian High School baseball teams crossed bats at Meridian Friday and the game resulted in a victory for Fair Haven.

Dorothea Pickett has recovered sufficiently from her illness to be able to be out on the porch. No other cases of scarlet fever have been reported.

Robert O. Monaghan has rented the lower flat in the Cooper house on East Main street, Cato, and will open a music store and sell school supplies.

Rudolf Blosser of the Oswego State Normal has been engaged to teach the fifth and sixth grade pupils at the local high school the ensuing year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hadcock are making marked improvements in the Melkovic parsonage, which has been rented with the privilege of buying.

A large truck carrying school pupils from Red Creek was at the state park Friday afternoon, where they enjoyed a picnic, returning home in the evening.

Robert D. Hill was in Albany the past week in the interest of the electric reduction of rates. The meeting was adjourned until the latter part of June.

Tickets have been received here for children of ages under 12 years, for the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago, if accompanied by their parents.

The mid-week prayer service will be discontinued for the summer months. The choir rehearsal will be held at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening at 7:30.

James S. Peckbridge, county superintendent of the poor, was busy signing 392 checks aggregating about $5,600 to be distributed to persons over 70 years of age entitled to old age relief.

A lot owners' meeting of the Springbrook Cemetery Association was held at the village hall Friday evening, at which time the price of endowment for a lot at the cemetery was voted back to $4 each year instead of $3.50.

H. Fitzgerald and son of Watertown, professional steplejacks, were in town Thursday and painted the flag pole at the school building and put up a new rope for the school flag, which has been stolen from the pole twice in the past school year.

Miss Dorothy Robinson of Meridian spent the week end with Miss Janet McPherson, Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Roy McPherson of LeRoy, parents of Miss McPherson, and the young ladies enjoyed dinner at the Fair Haven Beach State Park, in honor of Miss McPherson's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Graveley, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hill spent from Thursday until Sunday on a motor trip through the Adirondack Mountains and the Green Mountains of Vermont. While in Vermont they visited the birthplace and grave of the late ex-President, Calvin E. Coolidge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Phippin spent the week end with their son Donald at Hartford, Conn.

Dwight Grant is employed at the Martin-Trainer concession at the state park Sundays.

Merton Moore of Sandy Creek spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Moore.

S. J. Webber of Sylvan Beach spent Friday and Saturday with his sister, Mrs. Bert Adams.

Principal and Mrs. E. N. Pattee of Syracuse spent the week end at their summer home at the head of the bay.

Miss Mary Denmark and friend of Rochester were guests of Miss Denmark's mother, Mrs. Frank McIntyre, near Sterling.

Clarence Trauner and John Martin have opened the concession at the state park and did a fine business Sunday.

Miss Iva Thompson of Rochester was a guest of her mother, Mrs. Alice Thompson, west of Fair Haven, the week end.

Mrs. D. H. Hildebrand and sons Robert and Leigh accompanied her sister, Miss Grace Line, to Rochester Saturday for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Stark and son Russell and Miss Blossom Measday of Rochester spent the week end with Mr. Stark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stark.

Assessors for the town of Sterling, S. B. Simmons, Hugh Dugan of Sterling and Charles Lewis of Martville, are making their annual rounds in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. John Griggs of Red Creek were in town Friday evening when their daughter Marguerite assisted in the musical recital given by pupils of Mrs. Sidney Bisgrove.

Mrs. Roy Rasbeck, Mrs. W. J. Stark, Mrs. C. H. Griggs, Mrs. Oscar Vought and Mrs. D. Sheehan of Red Creek spent Thursday at Rochester to view the famous rock gardens.

Miss Dorothy Ingersoll, Mrs. Edward Ingersoll and daughter Virginia called at the home of Mrs. S. B. Simmons near Sterling Station Saturday to see her bed of peonies, which is a beautiful sight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howe and family of Fulton were at their summer home on Eldredge's Point over the week end. They will come to their summer home here in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Pratt, their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Pratt, and Mrs. J. Laparco, all of Seneca Falls, spent Sunday with Mr. Pratt's sister, Mrs. William Burdless and family.

Mrs. Eliza Coutant will open her home Wednesday afternoon for the monthly meeting of the Friendly Bible class. Answer the roll call with a verse of scripture containing the word "walk."

Rev. Russell S. Brown of Oneida has been secured to deliver the address at the commencement exercises of the Fair Haven High School Wednesday evening, June 23, at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Janet McPherson, Rev. H. E. Austin and Robert Monaghan were recently entertained at supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waldron near Sterling Station. Music was enjoyed through the evening.

Lyle Harrison, Grant Griffin, Dwight Grant and Martin Burtless, who have been attending the Oswego State Normal the past school year, finished their work at that place Friday. They will attend the commencement exercises at the Normal Thursday morning.

Rev. H. E. Austin gave the final of his series of sermons on "The Life of Victory" Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church, his theme being "The Meaning of a Radiant Fair Haven Sunset." Mrs. Robert Ingersoll sang a soprano solo entitled "Spirit of God," accompanied on the piano by her daughter, Miss Dorothy Ingersoll.

Canandaigua Academy band, Raymond J. Russell director, won second place for Class B bands at the national band contest at Evanston, Ill., according to the decisions Saturday afternoon. The band returned to Canandaigua Sunday evening and was met at the depot by the pipe and drum corps and about 600 people. The cannon of the city was fired several times. Thurston Smith, Lyle Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. M. were among the crowd to

C. H. Griggs was in Fulton and Oswego on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Pratt of Oswego are passing a few days at their cottage here.

Mrs. Jennie Benn of Auburn was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Byron Dates, Sunday.

Two picnics were held at the state park Tuesday, one from Rochester and one from Oswego.

The Citizens' band concert Saturday evening drew out a large crowd and the band played a fine concert.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Platt Jones of Syracuse are passing some time at their cottage at the head of the bay.

Tests are being given at the high school in the grades this week. Regents examinations will commence Monday, June 19.

Mr. and Mrs. William Van Aken and daughter Joanne of Canandaigua were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hurley and two children of Newark were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hurley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sant.

Charles Messent of Throop is ill at their cottage at North Fair Haven. His daughter, Elizabeth Messent, and Miss Minerva Sant are caring for him.

Mrs. Clarence Cope and son Jack of Rochester spent a number of days the past week with her mother, Mrs. Lucy E. Hill, returning home Sunday with Mr. Cope, who came for her.

Joseph Neal of Wolcott was a guest of his mother, Mrs. Anna Lewis Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Vought of North Wolcott and Mrs. George Betts of Alton called on friends in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harnden of Wolcott called on the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Griggs, Monday.

Mrs. John Russell of Baldwinsville was called here Tuesday by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Rasbeck.

Mrs. William Galloway is passing the week with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Elder and family, at Hamilton.

Frederick Turner Sr. and daughter Ruth spent Saturday with Mr. Turner's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, in Syracuse.

The Philathea class will serve home-made ice cream and cake and strawberries on the lawn near Phillips & Silliman's store Saturday evening, June 17.

R. Ellis, a pupil of Merton Moore at the Sandy Creek High School, played a cornet solo at the recital given by Mrs. Sidney Bugrove's piano pupils Friday evening. The solos and duets were enjoyed by all who attended.

Harry McFadden returned to his home Friday from the Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester, where he had been two weeks for observation. He is slowly improving and will be at home until July 3, when he will have to return to the hospital for treatment.

Make This Your Headquarters For Seeds and Fertilizers. Timothy seed, alsike, medium and mammoth clover seeds, all the popular kinds of seed corn, Canada peas, alfalfa, Sudan grass, sweet clover, garden peas and seeds, sweet corn and other seed. All this year's seeds or tested up to date. Also a supply of fertilizer, on hand to meet most any farm requirement. Also Arsenate of Lead and Calcium Arsenate for spraying.

AT THE END OF THE ROAD CROCKETTS POULTRY FARM. PR. STERLING ST. N.

You get the most heat value for your money from— LEHIGH VALLEY Anthracite THE COAL THAT SATISFIES. Screenshot Clean Prompt Delivery ORDER NOW M. C. TURNER ESTATE Tel. 31 Fair Haven

1879 1933 Phillips & Silliman BEACH PAJAMAS For Girls and Ladies. See them! Wear them on the beach. BATHING CAPS Finest lot of Bathing Caps we have ever had for 10c and 25c. Sand Pails for the Kiddies NEW PATTERNS OF VOILES at 19c and 16c per yard HOT WEATHER DRESSES For Girls, Misses and Ladies. Dotted Mull, Voiles and Prints. See our Rayon Gowns and Bloomers SPECIAL ARROWHEAD PRODUCTS EACH WEEK Jello, 5c Coffee, 25c Salad Dressing, 10c Canned Goods at 5c per can