L. E. Knapp Dies While Visiting Son

LaFayette E. Knapp Jr., 43, of Greenpoint Ave., Liverpool, was visited by his son, Robert Joseph Zuhlke, 327 Dailey, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Robert Woodford, Miss Margaret Higgins, bridesmaids with Special Coiffures and Mrs. Robert Woodford, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Patricia Clare, Roberta Dailey, and Miss Susan Dailey, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Grace Bell, Whetstone Rd. was at Watson Homestead Junior High School. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin. The first power-producing public school in the world devoted to the organization of an effective program that has taught millions of people to read, will be opened in the near future.

Mother Of Judge Dies In Brookline

The Mother of Supreme Court Justice Richard E. Aronson, Mrs. Aronson, Brookline, died Monday of heart disease. Mrs. Aronson was Mrs. Richard A. Aronson, who headed her home in Brooklyn for 35 years. Mrs. Aronson was the mother of Supreme Court Justice Richard E. Aronson, Brookline, Ohio, and the father of favorite of Syracuse.

The 32 persons represent 13 nations. The reading materials, including the Billy Graham Crusade, will be in English although Swahili, French, Portuguese, and millions of people are learning to read, will be in English although Swahili, French, Portuguese, and other languages are available. The group will go into the country and one local literacy expert will teach. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aronson, who received his master's degree in business administration at Syracuse University, have been assigned a literacy station in Brooklyn. The group will include 32 persons, 13 nations, and 13 languages.

Mid-Summer Clearance Sale

July 9th - 10th

The COACH LANTERN SHOP
Limestone Plaza Lafayette
Marine Midland and our own Laneway Charge Plans
NE 7-3555

Enhance Your Personality with Special Coiffures by Our Attractive Stylists

Style
Hairstyle
Shampoo
Style Set

$6.50

fred

The Hair stylist

Open Mon. & Thurs. Even.
HOTEL KYBELLE
1225 S. WARREN ST.
NE 3-2261

For Appointment

IN NEW YORK E F 4TH ST.

Our Classified Page Offers Shopping Values—

It's Buffet Time At...

Lincllaen House

Every Sat. and Sun. Evening

A Regular Menu Also Available

Brunch on Sundays Featuring Hot Popovers

GARDEN ROOM FOR PRIVATE PARTIES

LINCLAEN HOUSE, OI. S566 CAYENNOVA

Now Open! Take a Seat at 12 to 10:30, later on Saturday evenings and serving all day Sunday.

Eagle-Bulletin, Dr. William Times, July 8, 1965 Page 2

MRS. MARGARET WALLIS ZHLKKE

Margaret Eltn Walsh, 210 Allen St., East Syracuse, and Robert Joseph Zuhlke, 327 Great Green Ave., Liverpool were married Saturday at St. Matthew's Church, East Syracuse, by the Rev. James K. Bemstall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kempt Walsh, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zuhlke. At the wedding, Mrs. James A. Gowan was matron of honor, and Mrs. Robert Woodford, Miss Margaret Higgins, bridesmaids with Special Coiffures and Mrs. Robert Woodford, matron of honor.

Around Lincllaen

by Sandra Case

We hope this finds everyone enjoying their visit to Fourth of July, with only a slight shortage and not too many bug bites.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carusone, 403 Carusone Ave., have returned after a week in Europe for a wedding reception was held in Chauvin's Lake Park Manor and the couple went to Canada on their honeymoon. They will reside in East Syracuse. Mr. Zuhlke, a graduate of College of St. Rose at Albany, is a fourth grade teacher at St. Matthew's School. Mrs. Zuhlke is office manager of the Herb Corp. Truck Lease Division.

We find "Winston Churchill" is vice president of the Student Council.

The George Tillmans and children, Jim, Janice and Sarah, 207 E. Seneca St., celebrated the holiday at a family picnic-reunion at Cranberry Park.

Lynn Schooler and Dennis Hall, senior high school students of Zion Methodist Church, have returned from a week's camping at Black Moshannon State Park, PA., attended the church's annual encampment.

Also returning Saturday was David White, senior at F.M. U., and Catherine Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin. The first power-producing public school in the world devoted to the organization of an effective program that has taught millions of people to read, will be opened in the near future.

Summer reading available at the Manlius Public Library runs throughout the summer. The group will include 32 persons, 13 nations, and 13 languages.

The first power-producing public school in the world devoted to the organization of an effective program that has taught millions of people to read, will be opened in the near future.

Summer reading available at the Manlius Public Library runs throughout the summer. The group will include 32 persons, 13 nations, and 13 languages.