SCOUT HONOR COURT

Three scouts from Troop 98 at Utica were members of the Honor Court at the 1939 World's Fair Camporee, held in Lowville. The three scouts, who are also members of the Utica and Cazenovia communities, have been selected by the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

BLUE CHURCHES

The Blue Churches in Utica are now under the care of the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The group will be organized into three sections, each section being under the control of a different church. The first section is the First Presbyterian Church, the second is the Second Presbyterian Church, and the third is the Utica Congregational Church.

THE MARRIAGE

The marriage of Dr. Katherine Howley Carnes and Clyde Graham, manager of the Ben Franklin store in Utica, has been announced. The couple will be married on November 15th.

CLUB NEWS

Lowville Chamber of Commerce

The monthly meeting of the Lowville Chamber of Commerce took place on November 12th. The members were treated to a dinner at the Hotel Utica, and then the business of the chamber was transacted.

ARRIVAL DAY DINNER

The arrival day dinner was held on November 14th for the visitors who came to Lowville for the World's Fair Camporee. The dinner was held at the Hotel Utica, and was attended by many prominent citizens of Lowville.

Mental Health

The mental health clinic at the Lowville Hospital has been receiving many new members in recent weeks. The clinic is open to all members of the community, and is staffed by qualified psychiatrists.

JUDGES OF THE RURAL AGRICULTURAL AND HOME ECONOMICS EXHIBITS

The judges of the Rural Agricultural and Home Economics exhibits were announced last week. The judges are members of the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and are selected from among the leading farmers and homemakers of the county.

ELECTION

The election of Walter J. Matusczak, '41, of Utica, as district chairman of the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America, was held on November 13th. Matusczak is a prominent member of the community, and is well known for his leadership in various community organizations.

HOSPITAL

The Utica Hospital is now operating under the control of the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America. The hospital will be managed by a board of directors, composed of members of the council.

NEW YORK STATE UNIVERSITY OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNICAL INSTITUTE

A new building is being erected at the New York State University of Agriculture and Technical Institute, in Utica. The building is being constructed to accommodate the growing number of students at the school.

SOCIAL EVENT

Mrs. George Parlette of Utica spent the past weekend in Utica, visiting friends and relatives. She was a guest at several social events, and was the guest of honor at a dinner given in her honor.

Lost Youth Safe

Lost Youth Safe, a new organization, has been formed in Utica. The organization is being sponsored by the Utica Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and is designed to help young people who are in need of guidance and direction.

Babcock Hall’s Autumn Pies

Mrs. Babcock Hall, head of the Girls’ Home in Utica, has announced that her family will be holding a pie sale to raise money for the Girls’ Home. The sale will be held on November 15th, and will feature a variety of pies, including apple, pie, and pumpkin.

THE JOURNAL AND REPUBLICAN, LOUISVILLE, N. Y., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1939.