TESTIMONY OF BOOZ’S FRIENDS

TRIBUTES TO HIGH CHARACTER OF THE GENTLE.

DR. ALISON CRITICISED

PROFICIENT IN STUDIES

Persons Who Know the Young Cadet Brought His Character Before the Committee.

Richmond, Pa., Jan. 5. The engrossing Itinerary of the railroad journey to the city of Richmond was brought to the attention of the Committee of Ways and Means by the President of the Railways Association. The Committee, after a brief discussion, decided to appoint a subcommittee to study the matter further.

Catskill, N. Y., Jan. 5. The first ice of the season at Catskill was reported to be in excellent condition. The ice was observed to be several inches thick and of high quality. The weather was reported to be cold and clear, which was expected to continue for several days.

Washington, D.C., Jan. 5. The census for the year 1901 was released, showing a population of 29,602,620, an increase of 1,242,523 over the previous year.

London, Jan. 5. The report published in the London Times discusses the foreign policy of the United States and Japan. The report notes the increasing tension between the two countries and the possibility of a conflict.

San Francisco, Jan. 5. In some unexpected circumstances, arush went out of a large warehouse in San Francisco, causing considerable damage to the surrounding area. The cause of the fire is currently under investigation.

New York, Jan. 5. The German society for the advancement of science held a lecture on the latest developments in physics. The lecture was attended by over 500 people.

Bismarck, Jan. 5. The State of Bismarck has made the decision to discontinue the use of the old castle. The castle, which was constructed in the 1800s, is no longer considered to be suitable for use as a state building. The decision was made to replace the castle with a new building.

San Diego, Jan. 5. A group of fishermen have reported a large number of fish in the area. The fish are said to be of high quality and are expected to bring good prices at the market.

South Africa, Jan. 5. The report published in the South African Journal discusses the current political situation in the country. The report notes the increasing popularity of the opposition party and the possible implications for the future of the government.