Wilson Only Can Halt Wire Strike

Head of Union Threatens to Call Out Telegraphers at Western Union.

Labor Board Fails to Effort for Agreement—Carlton Gives Men One Chance.

The efforts of the National War Labor Board to end the strike between the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America culminated in failure yesterday. The government officials and Army and Navy officials who were present at the labor board investigation yesterday approved the report which showed that the company has not broken the strike. The company refused to agree to the demand of the labor board for the reinstatement of the workmen discharged for being members of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America.

Mr. Konenkamp, the representative of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, said: "There is not the slightest chance of our giving up the strike which we have called upon our members to make. We are ready to make every effort to solve the question by legal means."

Pauline Worthy, 29, was killed by coal mining explosion in Pennsylvania yesterday. She was an employee of the Pennsylvania Coal Company.
